GRADUATION

The fifth annual commencement at Homewood-Flossmoor High School saw the graduation of 381 Seniors. The program began with the "Alma Mater" played by the handbell choir of Seniors. After the processional, the salute to the flag, and the Invocation the Viking Choir sang "Salutation to the Dawn" by Mueller. William Dolph, president of the 1963-64 Senior class, then presented the class gift. The highlight of the evening came with the awarding of the diplomas by Mr. Claire V. Hansen, president of the Board of Education, and Dr. William O. Woodworth our Superintendent. The program was concluded by the singing of the "Alma Mater" by the graduates and the recessional.

The Class of 1964 marches in to the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the H-F band.

Graduates stand at the presentation of the class.

The Seniors file past with a smile, a handshake, and relief.

The Viking Choir, directed by Mr. Walter Rodby, sings "Salutation to the Dawn" by Mueller.

Leonard Carleton has a slight look of disbelief as he receives his diploma.

The Seniors wait patiently for the end—perhaps the beginning for most.

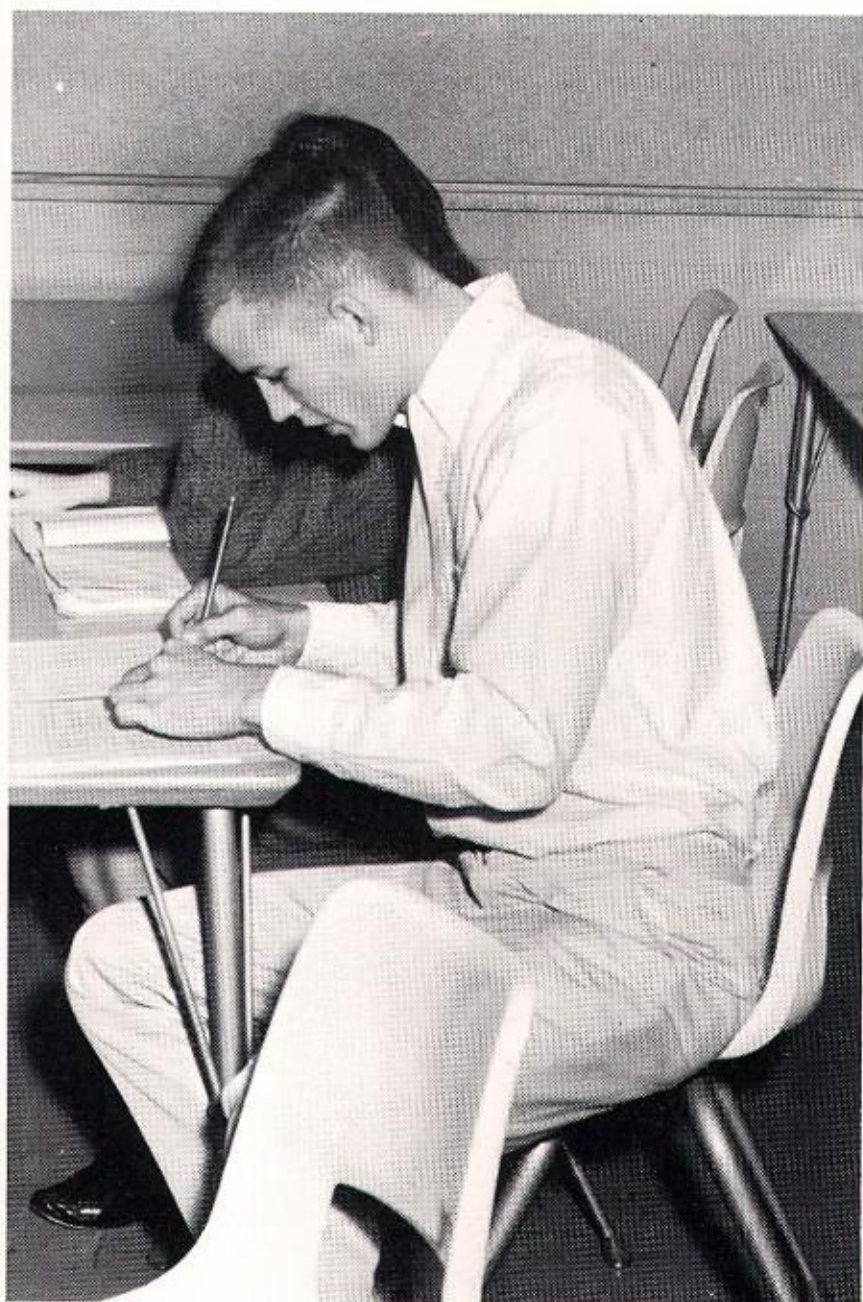

Royal Parsons receives her diploma and a handshake from Mr. Hansen.

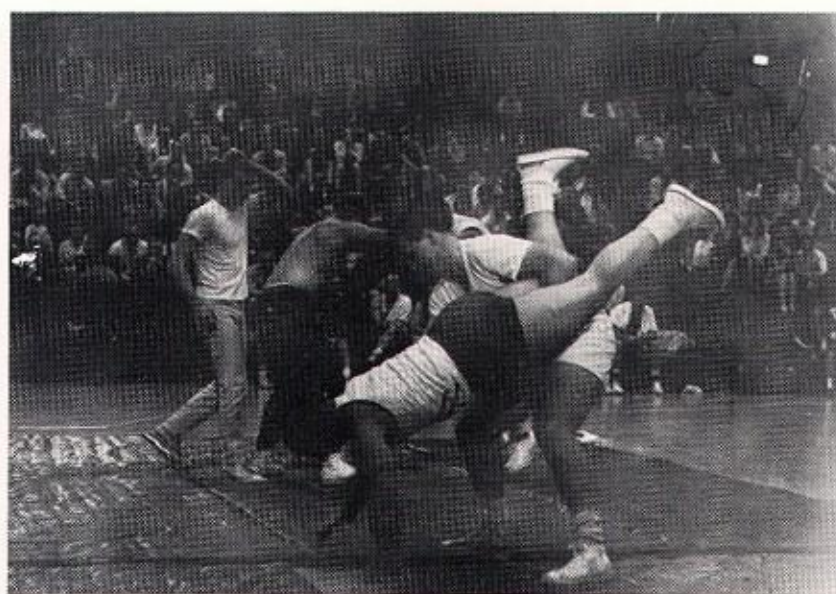

David Terry presents an address entitled "Awareness."

The traditional Handbell Choir plays the "Alma Mater."

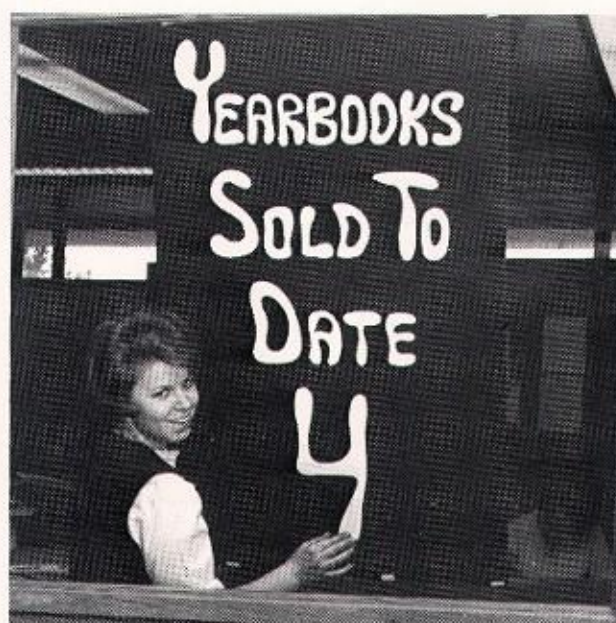

Sports Editor, Bill Wagner, does a layout page for the yearbook.

Senior John McAfee and Coach Arneberg do some clowning at a Fun Night.

Senior Louise Schmidt says, "Get'm while they're hot!"

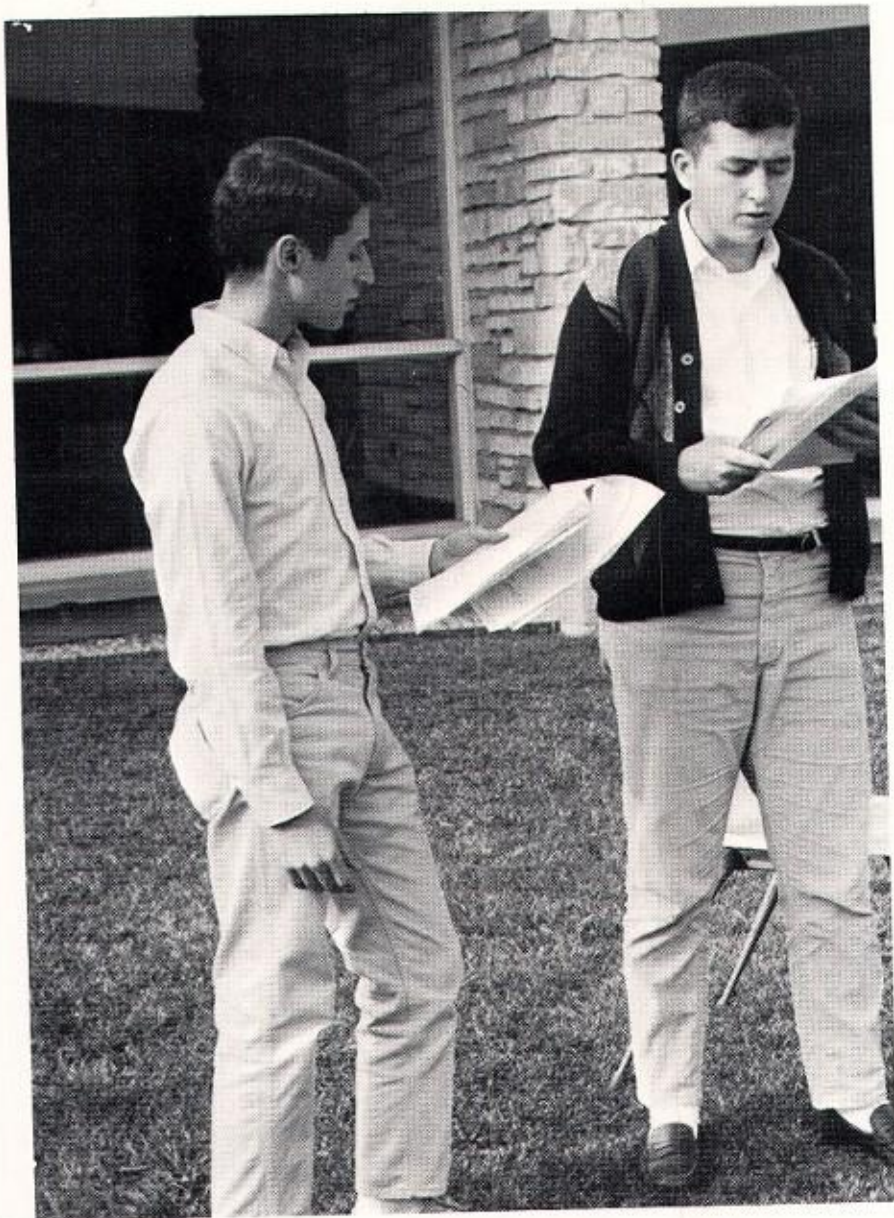

Janet Case acts as set supervisor during a rehearsal.

This Was the Year That Was:

... And did you ever hear the one about ... ?

"Great Ceasar's Ghost!!!" ... no ... "Juliet, my Juliet, where fore art thou?"

Yearbook Editor, Ruthanne Dooley; "Now what was that name again?"

Senior Lynn Jorgenson; "I just love math!!!"

Seniors Carol McKeever and Kaye Stephans; "May I have this dance?"

Seniors Bob Rubich, Lee Hague, and Chuck Lewis; "Alright Tigers!"

JUNIORS

With the opening of 1963-64 school year the Junior Class immediately began work on the organization of "Oreleans Romantique," the Junior-Senior Prom. Leading the class in planning, financing and decorating were President Dick Tackett, Vice-President Steve Bittner, Treasurer John Childers, and Secretary Sandy Lekas. The Class of '65 held various fund-raising activities to provide for this activity.

Juniors took part in various clubs, athletics and Student Government Affairs. Many class members found enjoyment and gained educational values from the annual Washington trip, a privilege open to students enrolled in American History classes.

Because of excellent cooperation and hard work throughout the year, the upperclassmen finished the term well prepared to accept the responsibility of being seniors.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen Class, led by Billie Frye, the first female class president, showed brilliant response to many activities at H-F. Vice-President, Bill Berger, Secretary, Shawn McQuality, and treasurer, Pauline McKee took their positions with a responsible attitude.

Time and endeavor were well spent in such areas as student government, including Senate and Supreme Court; committees and clubs were pleased with the energy and new ideas brought to them by the Class of '67. Having succeeded academically and athletically this group demonstrated tremendous potential and resources.

VBC . . . Establishes Foundation

The idea of a radio station emerged in December of 1962 by two Homewood-Flossmoor students. Since then over 120 students have become members of the Viking Broadcasting Company. The schedule of the VBC has been revolving around fund raising projects during the past year and a half due to the tremendous cost of commercial broadcast equipment.

The familiar VBC films such as "Gigi," "North by Northwest," and "Breakfast at Tiffany's" have been shown primarily as fund raising projects. Both the Homewood-Flossmoor PTA and the Board of Education allocated funds when they realized the potential of a radio station.

This year sufficient funds were accumulated, and an application for a low power, non-commercial educational FM station was sent to the Federal Communications Commission. After interminable difficulty and conflicts, the school reapplied for a frequency of 88.5 megacycles. At the time this article is being written, much hope remains for success.

The overwhelming enthusiasm of this group cannot be extinguished.

Mr. Tony Santucci, president of WCGO, shows VBC members a typical information bulletin when they visited his station. Students are (from left to right) Tom Harlan, Chris Tozer, Jim Hull, Walt Olson, Ed Healy, and Ken Carlson.

Walt Olson and Ken Carlson inspect Radio Station WCGO's teletype machine as the news of the day comes in from the wires of the Associated Press almost as it occurs.

For Radio Station

The process of equipment purchases and organization of the station management and procedures has been quite a worthwhile experience in itself. The VBC Broadcast Training Program has been an extracurricular course offering both instruction and practical application by stimulating broadcast situations and permitting the students to produce, write and perform their own programs. The VBC has made great strides during the past year. The idea of a radio station at Homewood-Flossmoor is slowly becoming a reality.

The Station Management includes:

STATION MANAGER	Tom Harlan
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY	Chris Tozer
ASSISTANT STATION MANAGER—
PROGRAM DIRECTOR	Walt Olson
CHIEF ENGINEER	Randy Pacek
COMPOSITION DIRECTOR	Bill King
NEWS AND SPORTS EDITOR	Jan Harms
TRAFFIC MANAGER	Sue Cox
FACULTY SPONSOR	John A. Weeks

Ken Carlson and Ed Healy prepare for a sports broadcast. Both VBC members are sportscasters which involves on-the-spot coverage. Much background information must be accumulated to assure continuity.

Mr. Santucci explains to Walt Olson the correct procedure for operating one of the control consoles at WCGO. The console regulates the microphone, turntable and tape recorder volumes as one of its many functions.

The Homecoming Committee has complete charge over all the plans for Homecoming week and the dance. Their work entails planning weekday activities, parade details, pep assembly, coronation, half-time functions and the dance. This year's over-all theme was "Idylls of the Orient" and the dance was decorated according to the theme "Aura of the East." The Election Committee takes charge of all school elections for Student Government and class officers. The committee is headed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and its members are chosen the previous years. They act as election officials and tabulate the results.

The staff of the H-F '64 spent many hours in composing the yearbook and in managing its sales. Staff members strived to present an accurate and complete record of the events of the 1963-64 school year. In order to accomplish this goal, the yearbook was distributed at the end of the summer. The staff then was able to allot more time to each deadline, and was able to include spring activities in the annual.

The production of the yearbook was under the direction of Ruthanne Dooley, Editor-in-Chief. The financial matters came under the attention of Sue Greathouse, who served as Business manager. Other editors were assigned to head specific phases toward the completion of the annual. Mr. Ken Kinney, advisor, aided the staff in carrying out their assignments.

FOOTBALL

Varsity Shows Spirit

The 1963 Football Season fulfilled a chain of events, which included the aquisition of a new football coach, and succeeded in gaining H-F needed football prestige, and layed groundwork for greater emphasis on the sport in the future. The coach, James Arneberg, brought with him an outstanding football record from Chicago's St. Leo, and a new system of pattern football. Much time was consumed in adapting to the variations of the single basic pattern. A necessary result of this was an early season lack of precision and timing.

The loss of senior Greg Wright and junior Steve Bittner for the season presented a "lost threat" offensively which was to a great extent compensated for by juniors; Ron Marsh, Bill Tompkins, and Jim Farmer. The team posted a 3-5 conference record finishing fourth behind a powerful Rich East.

Fine defensive work was turned in by Srs. Jim Kisner, Tim Hart, and Chuck Lewis. Heavily laden with juniors this year, the Vikes promise to be conference contenders next year.

FOOTBALL

Sophs Massacre . . .

The Frosh-Soph gridgers, powered by good running backs and a strong defense, compiled a 3—5 slate on a tough schedule. Coach Bjorklund's charges showed great promise at Oak Lawn where a fine defensive effort keynoted an 18—0 win. They were unable to develop an offense to match their defense, losing to Rich East, Sandburg, and Reavis before conquering the Lincoln Way Knights.

Play improved to a climax when the Viking offense exploded for seven touchdowns in a 51—0 shellacking of Bremen.

The soph's play was highlighted throughout the season by the fine running of Mark Detjen, Ken . . .

"Gimme a V . . . !!!?"

The 1963 Freshman Football team finished the season with a 1—7 slate, the sole victory, a united effort against Lincoln-Way, 14—7.

Although lacking in wins, the Freshmen turned in fine efforts against Bremen and Sandburg.

This year's freshman crew will gain the aid of Bob Majka and Steve Messimer who played with the Soph's this year as freshmen, and a year of valuable experience which should result in a much improved Sophomore team next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Varsity Lacks Depth . . .

The 1963 Varsity Cross Country team, coached by Mr. Walter Stevens, won 2 and lost 8 in rugged competition. The sophomore team compiled a 3—7 record. In conference standings, the Vikes finished fifth behind Rich East, Evergreen Park, Bremen, and Carl Sandburg. The little Vikes took third behind Rich East and Reavis. Mr. Stevens tagged seniors Jeff Carlstead, Jim Frye and junior Bill Flinn as his consistent front runners.

BASKETBALL

Bruce Calvert, (with ball), and Tom MacDonald, the adept Viking guards, bring the ball down court against Reavis.

Among other noteworthy achievements, the 1963-64 Varsity Basketball team walked away with the school's second straight conference championship. Seniors Jim Frye and Greg Wright, brilliant offensively and defensively, led the team to a 20-3 slate and much state-wide recognition.

Frye's twisting baseline shots, his skill from the free-throw line and the accurate shooting of Wright and other teammates provided the offensive potential to smash Evergreen Park with a 117 point onslaught—a conference scoring record.

Greg Wright's agility and deceptive passing and the quick handed ball thievery of Tom MacDonald delighted the fans and confused opposing teams.

Bob Rath filled the pivot position, shooting and clearing the boards for the Vikings.

Much can be said about the hard playing of regulars Dennis Bernsten, Bruce Calvert, and Tom Clarke, providing the team with aggressiveness, scoring and rebounding.

The team, the most successful in H-F's brief history, inspired deep school pride and spirit, characterizing the past year at Homewood Flossmoor.

Big Bob Rath, the Vike's pivot man, scores right along with team's aces, despite ankle injuries.

Another consistent scorer for the Vikes was Dennis Bernsten. His outside shooting provided the team with depth.

Dazzling Tom MacDonald scores after swiping the ball from a hapless Bloom ballhandler. Wright follows up.

Greg Wright leaps for two points. Wright was the second half of the Viking scoring punch, chalking up the second highest point total for the team.

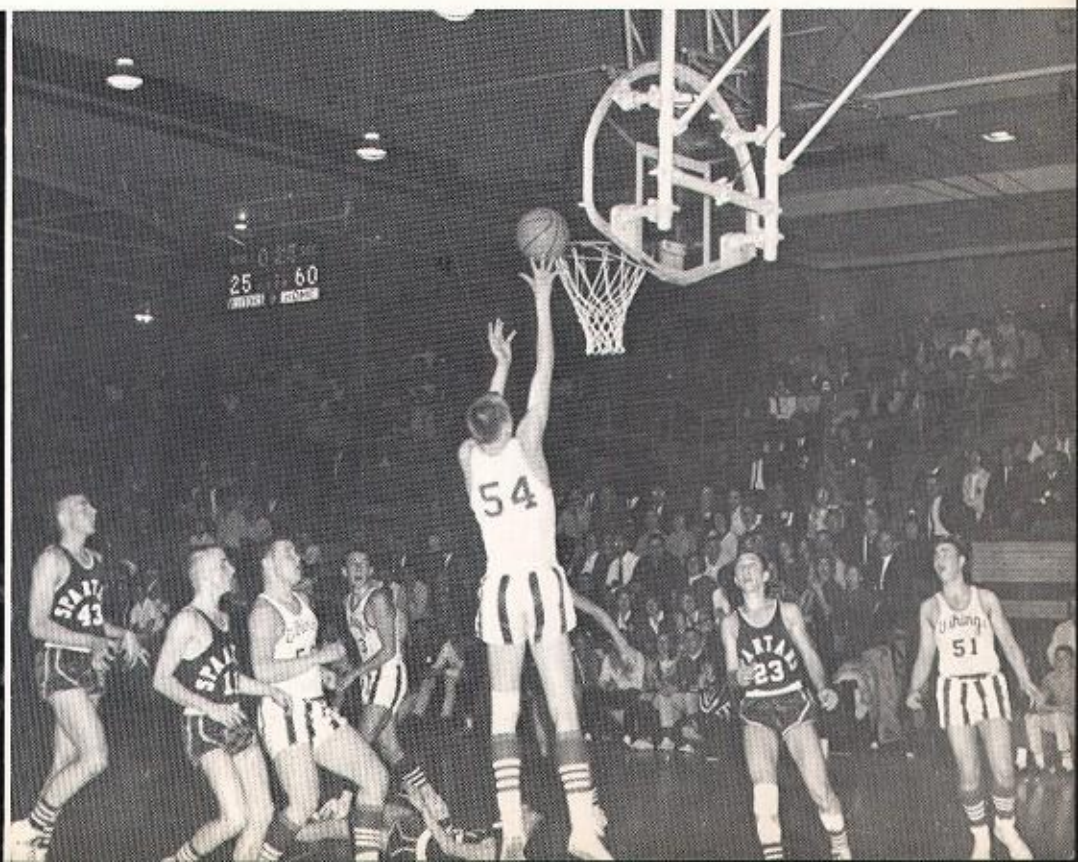

Up for special honor is lanky Jim Frye, the most outstanding athlete in the history of Homewood-Flossmoor. His accomplishments over the past three years as a Varsity Basketball regular will not soon be topped. Records set by Jim are as follows:

Most points in a Varsity season:	488 (1964)
Most points in a single game:	43 (1963)
Most field goals in a season:	181 (1964)

Defense, Rebounding Give Vikes . . .

A scrappy, hard playing bunch of sophomore basketball players, under the direction of Coach Richard Schmidt, out-rebounded, out-shot, and out-hustled all conference teams and carried off the trophy.

The soph's, led by the hot shooting Bob Majka, freshman with potential, Rick Harbeck, and John Weinberg topped the Southwest Suburban Conference with an unblemished 14—0 record.

Aggressive rebounding characterized this team as Harbeck, Mike Lockhart, and Terry Daehn cleared the boards for the Vikes.

The sophomores quickly became favorites of the fans for their remarkable second-half performances which led to an upset conquest of Bloom, 62—53.

For the fourth consecutive year, Mr. William Lucy sponsored the intramural basketball program. This activity gives boys who aren't on a team a chance to play organized basketball.

Desire, good moves, and aggressiveness were the ingredients behind a highly successful Varsity Wrestling season this year. The Vikings attained an unprecedented second place in a talent laden conference, dominated by state champion Reavis teams. Little John Fregeau, 95-lb. sophomore, pulled a hat trick winning district, taking second in sectional, and advancing to the state meet.

The big wins were against Rich East, Evergreen Park, and District Champion Rich Central. John Fregeau, 95 lb.; Jim Kisner, 165-lb.; and Charles Long, 180-lb., were placed on the all-conference team, an outstanding achievement. These three were also the victors of twenty matches.

Next year's returnees, with the expectation of great things, are John Fregeau, Mike Rothermel, Scott Willis, John Childers, and Chuck Long.

The Freshmen, under the tutelage of coach Russ Weirnsberger, rapped out a 4—6 ledger, finding winning ways against Crete, Oak Lawn, Lincoln Way and a powerful Rich Central. Prospects for the future include Dennis Delnagro, Don Rothermel, and Steve Bondhus.

For a second year H-F athletic endeavor, Coach Ed Aldridge directed the Varsity Swimming team to astounding heights. What's more, the 200 yd. freestyle relay team composed of Sr. Joe Washburn and Jrs. Roger McCoy, Greg Baker, and Don Schlatt qualified for state competition.

Seniors Wayne Harkness and Joe Washburn led the team, comprised mainly of Juniors, to lopsided victories over area powers Bloom, Thornton, and LaGrange. The Vikes won the close ones too—Joliet, T.F. South, and Sandburg, the last one undecided until the final event. Filling in at other events were Bill Gehring, Chuck Steiner, Jack Truax, and Pete Marwick, all capable swimmers.

North, Sandburg, and LaGrange. A noteworthy performance was turned in against Hinsdale, perennial State Champions, in a 54-41 loss. Sophomore standouts, winners in the conference meet, were Mike Edwards, Steve Merritt and Rich Bergman. Edwards was winner of the 100 yard individual medley event, Merritt in the 50 yard freestyle and Bergman in the 50 yard Butterfly event. The championship sophomore team, filling in with the returning Varsity next year should result in a very successful 1964-65 season.

CHEERLEADERS

No winning Basketball season would be complete without the pep generated from a well organized and enthusiastic cheerleading squad. This years squads, under the direction of Miss Spurrier, put emphasis on originality in cheers, in rallies, and pep campaigns throughout the school. Student response was tremendous as was indicated in the THUNDERATION campaign. The building program through which girls gain experience at Freshman and Sophomore levels is now paying off with many qualified Varsity candidates.

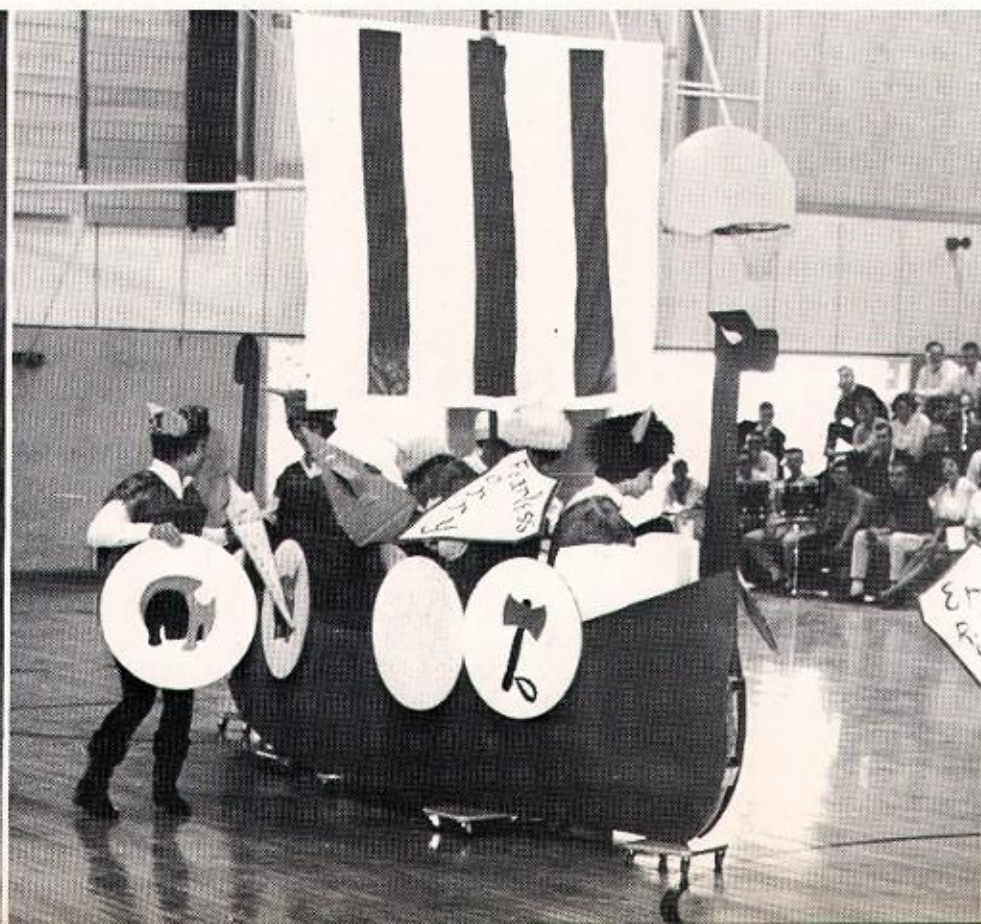

"Victory For Varsity" radiates from the varsity squad—a good summary of 63-64 Varsity athletics.

The golf team, coached by Mr. Hipple climaxed another highly successful season by capturing their fifth consecutive conference crown. They compiled a season record of 12—2. Especially outstanding were John Proctor and Jack Truax.

No room for cars on Bicycle Day.

This year's fourth annual Homecoming Week, "Idylls of the Orient," featured a Class Distinction Day, Bicycle-Bermuda Day, Slacks Day, Dress-Up Day and the traditional Red and White Day.

After the game with the Reavis Rams, the students danced to the Lane Every Band at "Aura of the East."

TURNABOUT DANCE . . .

Take a Chance

Seniors Kaye Stephens and Carol McKeever dance with alumni dates.

The Turnabout Dance combines gaiety with seriousness.

Suzie Clayton escorts her date, Tom McDonald to the king's throne.

Students with tired feet, relax over refreshments in the commons.

We would like to express our sincere thanks to all those who unselfishly gave of their time and efforts to the Mardi Gras Dance on Feb. 8. We would also like to thank those students who patronized the dance.

We regret that more students did not give themselves the opportunity to come and join the fun. Therefore, it is the decision of Le Cercle Francais to discontinue indefinitely what was to be the annual Mardi Gras Dance, since the unique students of Homewood-Flossmoor High School do not yet seem prepared for such an activity.

Again, we would like to thank all those students who contributed to and participated in a most enjoyable evening.

VARSITY INNS

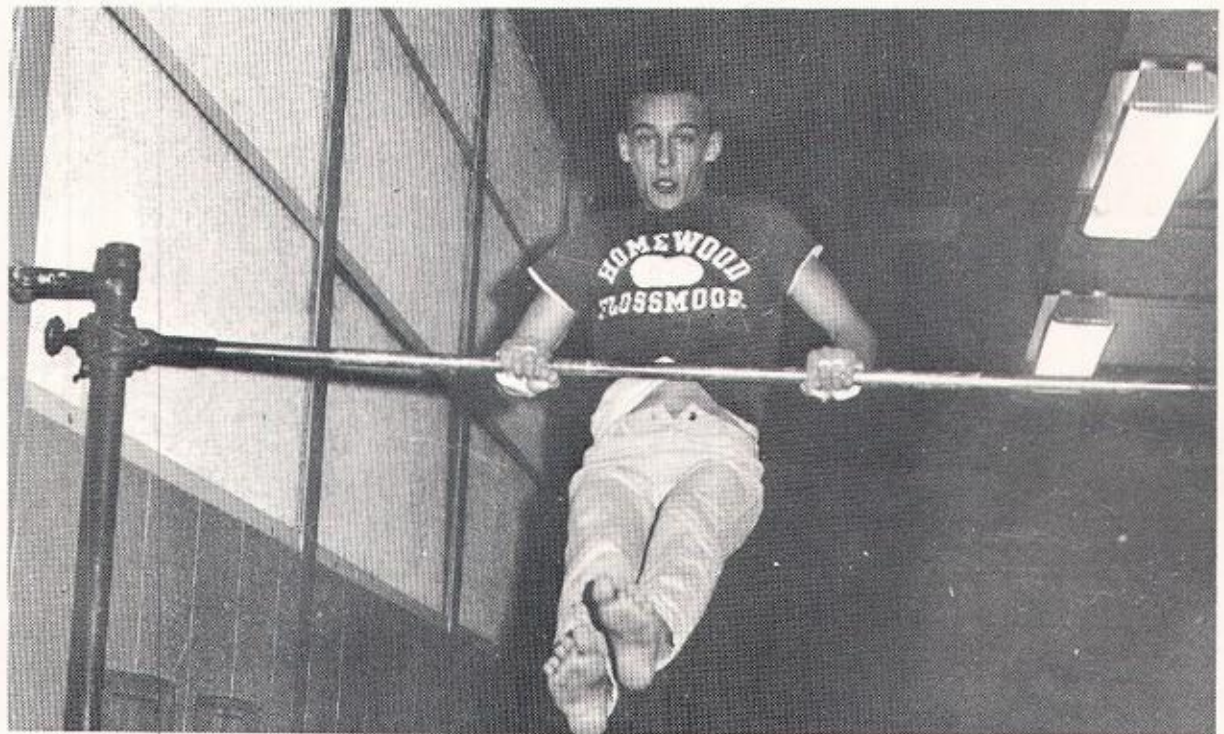

After many of the important home basketball games, Varsity Inns were held for the enjoyment of all HF students. These casual dances provided an excellent place for Vikings to celebrate their victories, relax after games, and enjoy the exciting music of the "Wildcats." The various Varsity Inns were sponsored by individual classes as well as club and organizations.

GYM

JAM

Three "Gym Jams" were held during the past year in October, March, and May. Sponsored by various clubs and organizations, these activity nights proved to be very successful. Students were able to enjoy all gymnastic equipment, including the use of the pool. Various bands including "The Wildcats" provided music. Students wore levis and sweatshirts.

On May 23, students entered the gym and were immediately captured by the creole of the fifth annual Junior-Senior Prom, "Orleans Romantique."

This year two bands provided music from 8:30 till 11:30. Don Jaris and his orchestra played indoors, while a Dixieland Band could be enjoyed for those desiring to dance under the stars on the patio. Following the Prom, the Junior Class sponsored a Post Prom at San Remos Restaurant in Indiana. The Towland Three, a folk singing group, were part of the evening entertainment.

The 1964 Prom left the Juniors with a feeling of satisfaction for their hard work in producing the last big formal event for graduating seniors.

THE EVERSON MEMORIAL

RALPH D. EVERSON
Advisor of the H-F '62
1925—1962

In a special assembly on May 1st, 1964, the Ralph D. Everson Memorial was presented to the school by Dr. Woodworth. After Mr. Everson's untimely death in March of 1962, a committee was formed to decide upon an appropriate memorial. The result was a bronze plaque of Mr. Everson's creation. Mr. Everson designed the Viking when the school first opened and it has become the well known and well loved symbol of Homewood-Flossmoor High School.

Dr. Woodworth presents the Everson Memorial to Mrs. Everson.

Mr. Sapone socialized with his students.

Carmallo V. Sapone, a social science teacher at H-F since 1959, resigned to seek his doctorate in administration at the University of Illinois.

Since the opening of the school Mr. Sapone has taught Geography to freshmen and U.S. History to juniors. He had charge of all Student Government Activities for three years and also advised the Homecoming and Turnabout Committees.

He received his Bachelors' degree at Indiana State and his Masters' degree at Indiana University.

Mr. Carmello V. Sapone

There was always time for humor in his classes.

Dr. W. McGregor Deller

Dr. W. McGregor Deller, Director, of Instructional Services since the opening of the school in 1959, resigned his position and accepted a superintendency in his home state of New York with the Fairport district.

As Director of Instructional Services he had charge of summer school and adult classes. He also programed the courses for the regular school year, arranged for all text books, and figured the exam schedule, just to name a few of his responsibilities.

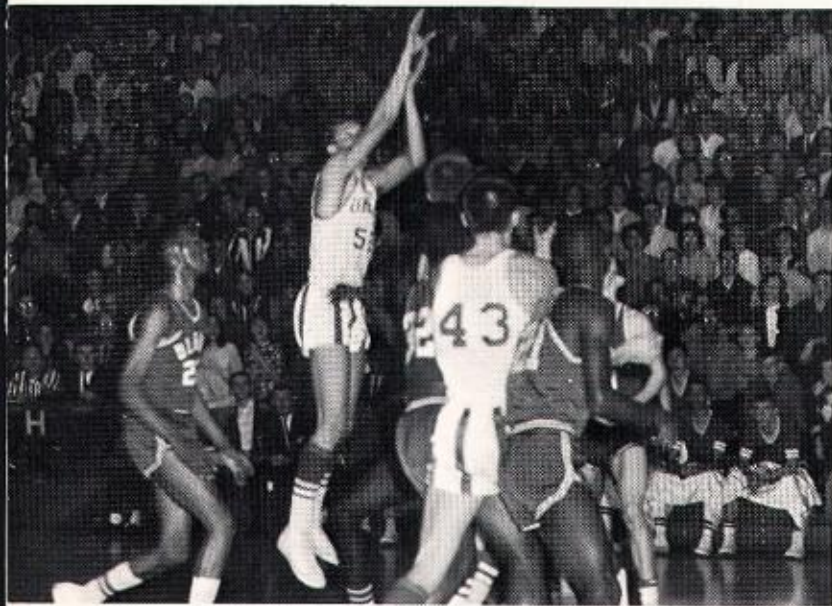

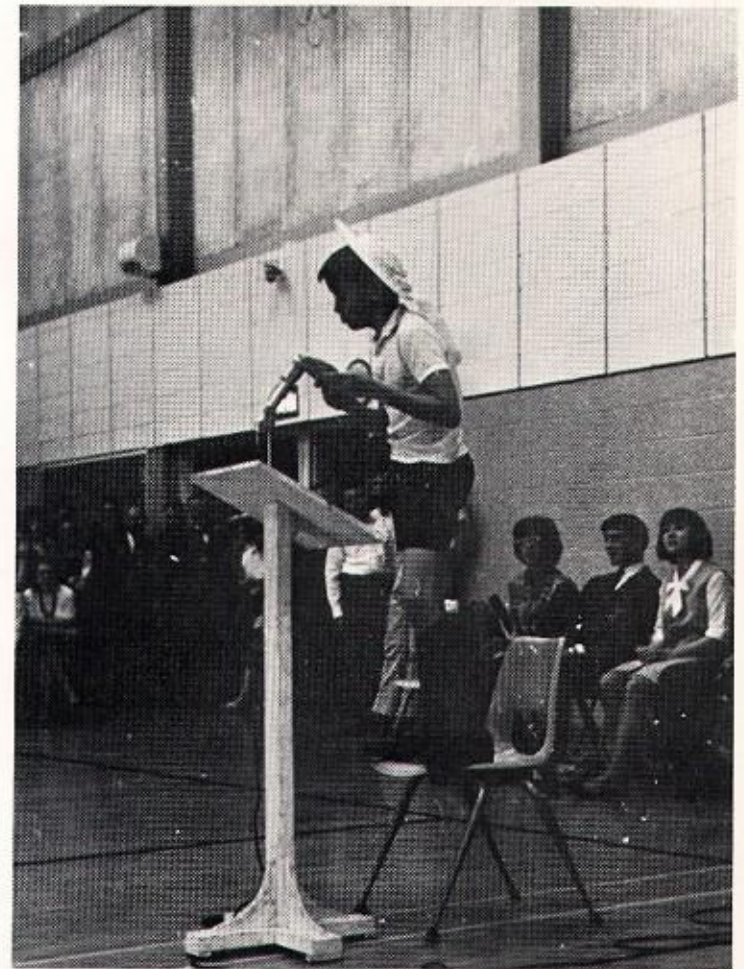

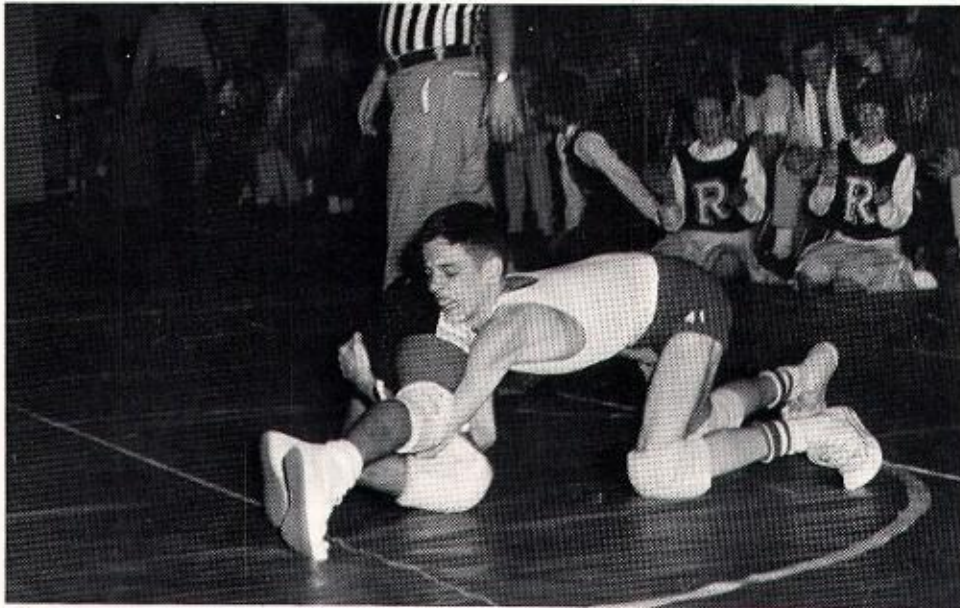

Dr. Deller has done an excellent job at his position. He has greatly contributed to the high quality of H-F's instructional program. We will indeed feel the loss of this dedicated man.

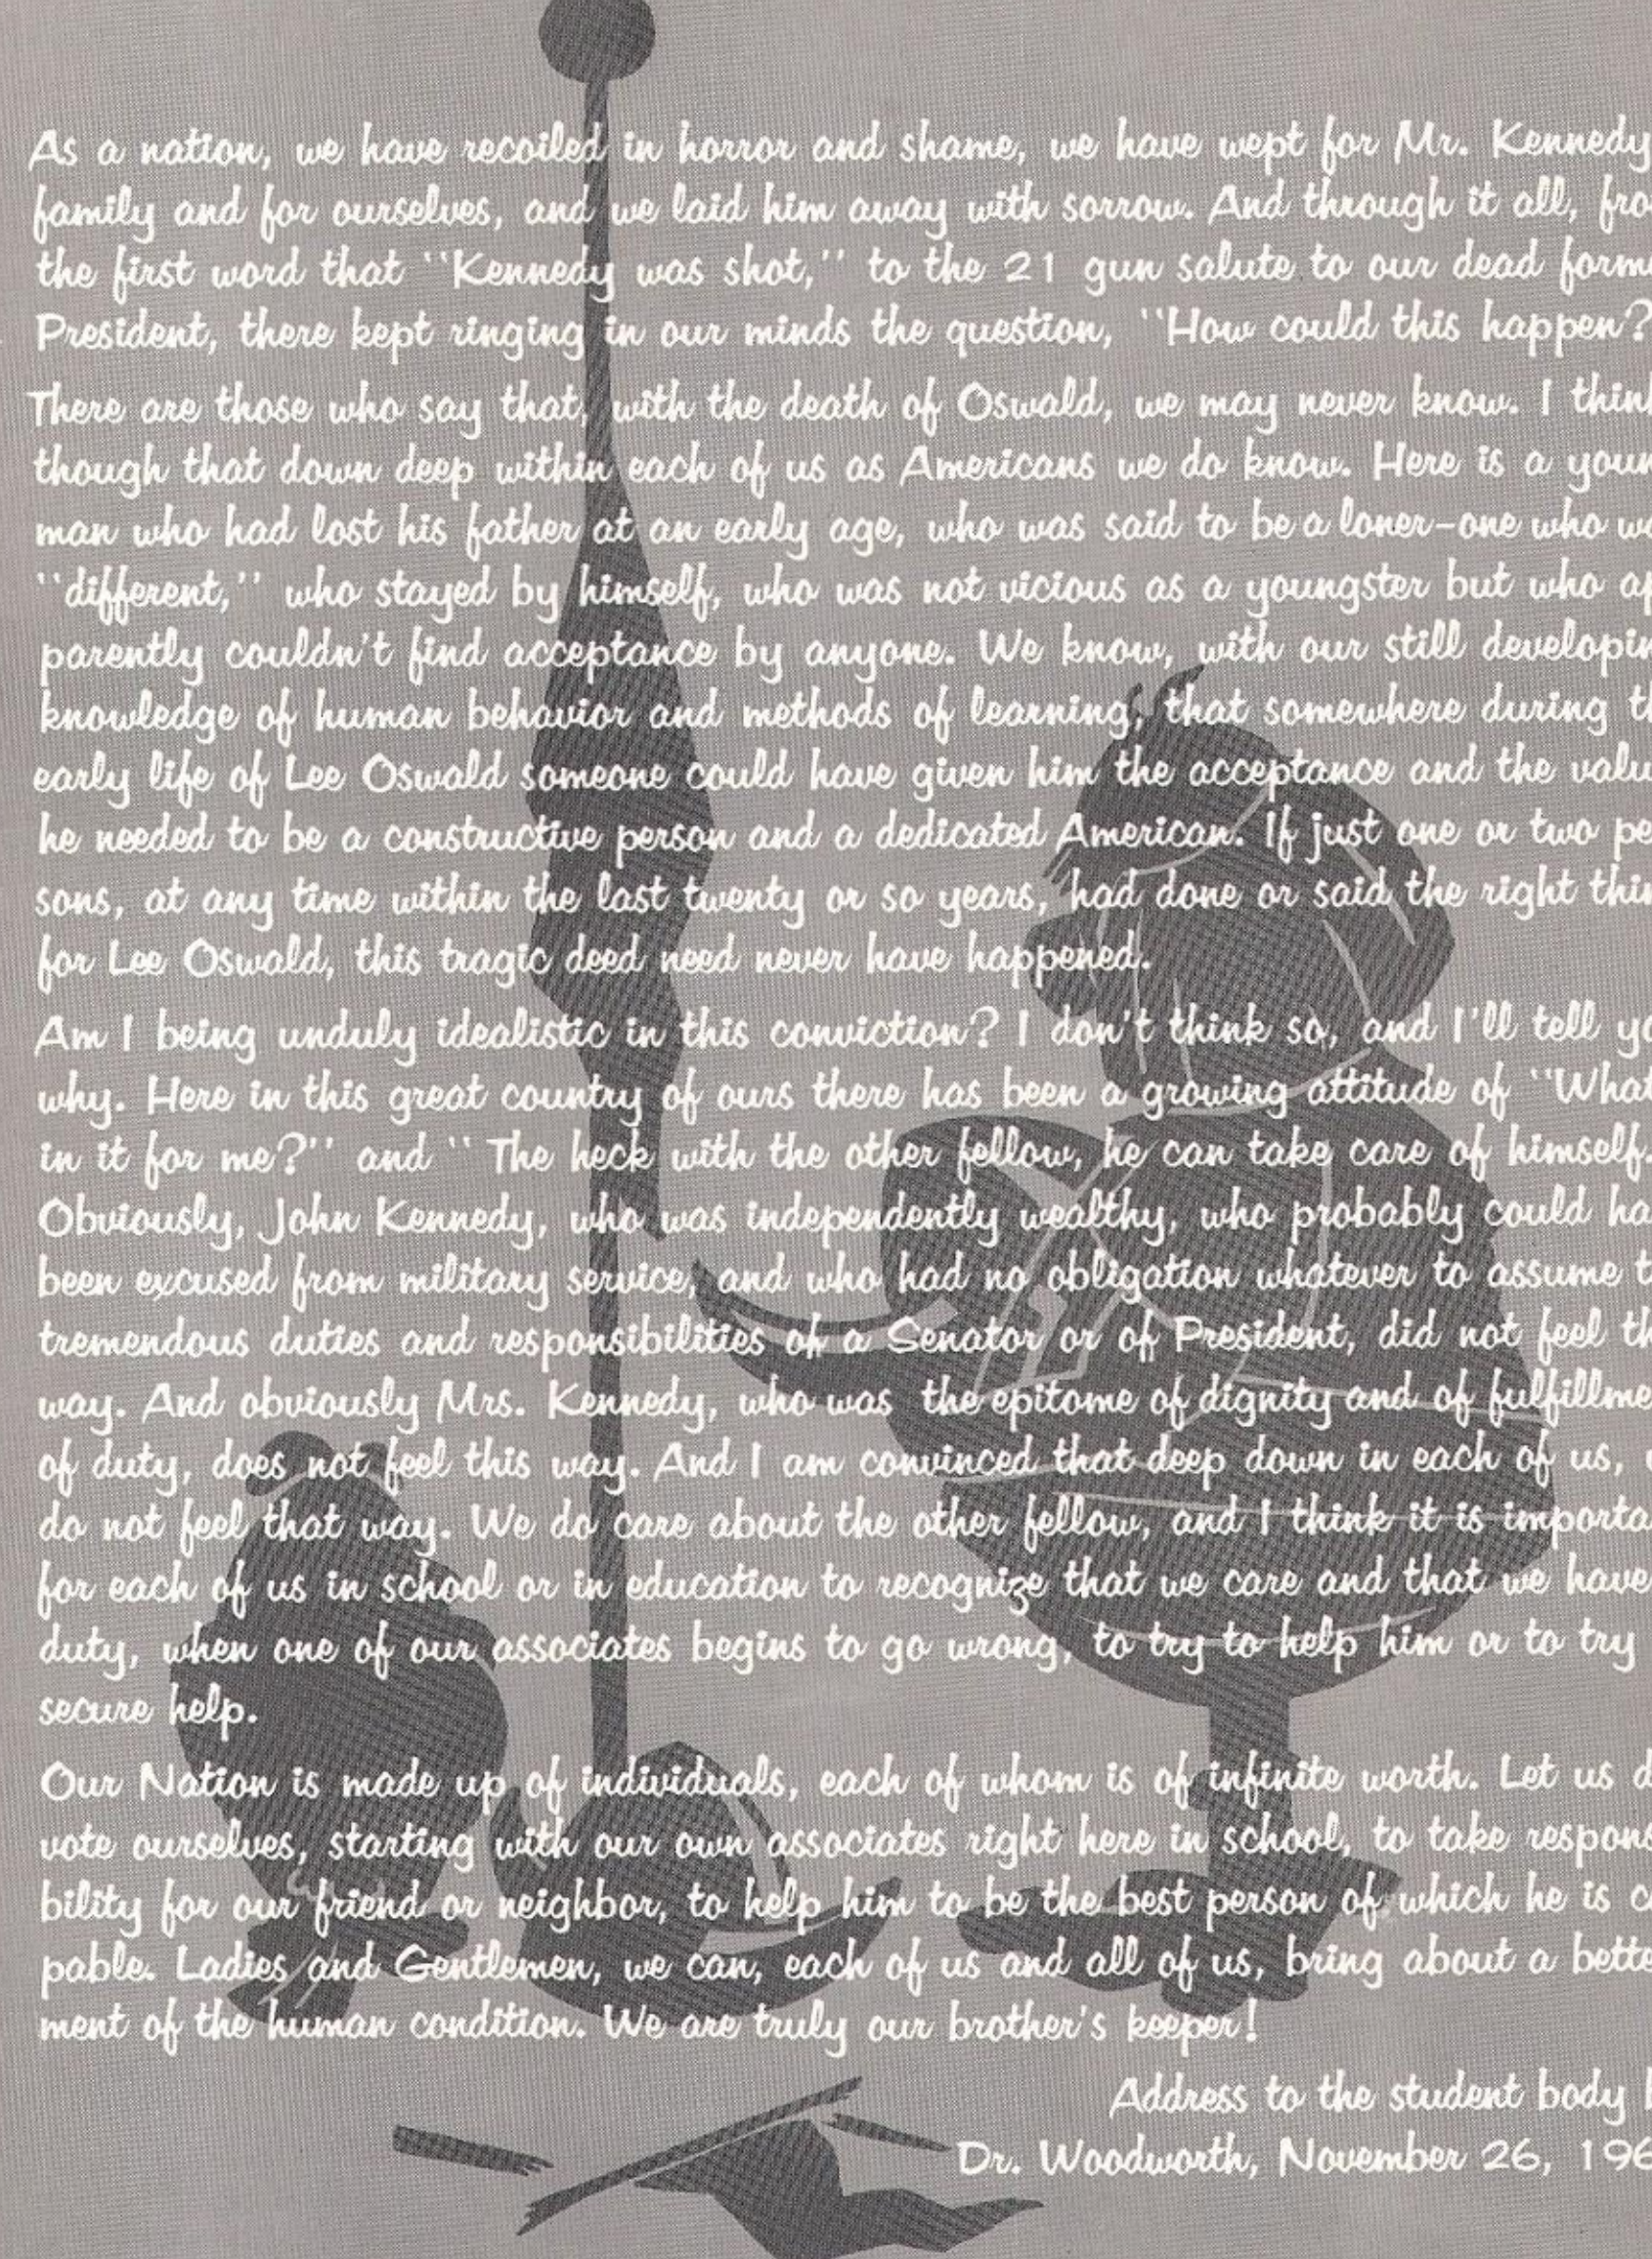

Dr. Deller relaxes for a moment from his many responsibilities.

Dr. Deller joins the rest of the administration in performing his administrative tasks.

As a nation, we have recoiled in horror and shame, we have wept for Mr. Kennedy's family and for ourselves, and we laid him away with sorrow. And through it all, from the first word that "Kennedy was shot," to the 21 gun salute to our dead former President, there kept ringing in our minds the question, "How could this happen?"

There are those who say that, with the death of Oswald, we may never know. I think, though that down deep within each of us as Americans we do know. Here is a young man who had lost his father at an early age, who was said to be a loner—one who was "different," who stayed by himself, who was not vicious as a youngster but who apparently couldn't find acceptance by anyone. We know, with our still developing knowledge of human behavior and methods of learning, that somewhere during the early life of Lee Oswald someone could have given him the acceptance and the values he needed to be a constructive person and a dedicated American. If just one or two persons, at any time within the last twenty or so years, had done or said the right thing for Lee Oswald, this tragic deed need never have happened.

Am I being unduly idealistic in this conviction? I don't think so, and I'll tell you why. Here in this great country of ours there has been a growing attitude of "What's in it for me?" and "The heck with the other fellow, he can take care of himself." Obviously, John Kennedy, who was independently wealthy, who probably could have been excused from military service, and who had no obligation whatever to assume the tremendous duties and responsibilities of a Senator or of President, did not feel this way. And obviously Mrs. Kennedy, who was the epitome of dignity and of fulfillment of duty, does not feel this way. And I am convinced that deep down in each of us, we do not feel that way. We do care about the other fellow, and I think it is important for each of us in school or in education to recognize that we care and that we have a duty, when one of our associates begins to go wrong, to try to help him or to try to secure help.

Our Nation is made up of individuals, each of whom is of infinite worth. Let us devote ourselves, starting with our own associates right here in school, to take responsibility for our friend or neighbor, to help him to be the best person of which he is capable. Ladies and Gentlemen, we can, each of us and all of us, bring about a betterment of the human condition. We are truly our brother's keeper!

H-F Administration, Faculty, and Office Staff

As Freshmen, we nervously entered Homewood-Flossmoor, imagining as we approached the front doors that we should abandon all hope. The maze of halls stood before us. Timidly, we began walking through them as our thoughts soured and the banners of red and white rushed through our minds.

We made many friends, and through them, we remember the oneness we felt as those banners red and white were held high at many events. Our voices of spirit denoted the acclaim that we rendered to our alma mater.

The dances, one by one, foreshadowed the proms as time seemed to run as sand through our fingers. And sooner than we expected, those last assemblies came. The cold diplomas retold of our former work. Now, we are confused between our present hopes and our fears of the future.

But the spirit that kept us together in the past will bring us together again in the future, and the banners red and white will unfurl once more.
